About the firm:

Since setting up in 1984 Duncan Grehan and his staff have provided an increasing foreign client base with advice in all of the general practice areas. We are experienced in dealing with cross-border transactions. Many of our clients trade with Ireland from abroad or have set up subsidiary or branch operations here. Others have invested here in farmland, forestry, bloodstock, country houses and holiday homes. We correspond in the English & German languages which a number of our staff speak. We have a particular reputation for advising on issues of German-Irish Trade. We are a small, skilled and experienced team. We are members of a number of non-exclusive international lawyer networks, groupings and associations.

Provides general practice advice in all civil law areas and particularly, Corporate, Commercial, Foreign Investment, Insolvency and Liquidations, Debt Collection, Enforcement of Foreign Judgements, Creditors' Rights, Commercial Litigation, Contract and Breach of Contract, Conveyancing, Property and Real Estate, Inheritance and Probate Law, Product Liability, Insurance Litigation for Defendants and Plaintiffs, Agency and Distribution, Sale and Transportation of Goods, Advertising Law, Information Technology. This core solicitor team is supported by assistant solicitors, trainee solicitors and legal executives. Many of them have foreign language skills with a particular emphasis on German.

The firm is the legal advisor in Ireland to the States of Germany, Austria and Switzerland for each of which Duncan Grehan is the Special Advisor.

Duncan Grehan was a founding member in the late 1980s of the European Advertising Lawyers Association, the predecessor of GALA of which he is the representative for Ireland.
