

Estudio Antequera Parilli & Rodriguez co-hosted the first Venezuelan Sports Law Congress.

Last 16th and 17th of March, 2006 took place the First Congress about Venezuelan Sports Law co organized by Estudio Antequera Parilli & Rodriguez and the Firm Bolinaga, Levy, Marquez & Canova.

This event counted with the participation of well known professionals specialized in this field, along with representatives from the most prestigious local sports organizations, and many interesting topics were discussed, such as the sponsorship and advertising agreements related to sports teams and events; the relationship between the players, the agents and the teams; the implications of the Radio and TV Social Liability Law over the sports advertising and sponsorship; and the legal aspects of merchandising related to sports entities, exposed by Ricardo Alberto Antequera, partner of our Firm.

This two-day event attracted so many interests among participants, that a second issue of it is imminent.

Monica Granadillo
Estudio Antequera Parilli & Rodriguez